PROGRESSIVE POLITICS SCORED

Atty. Gen. Wickersham, Endorsed by Taft, Announces Them "Insensate"

SNEERS AT INITIATIVE REFERENDUM POLICIES

Says Popular Legislation and Direct Primaries Destroy
"Dignity of Office"

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 17.—In a speech endorsed by President Taft, Attorney General Wickersham, before the City Club, declared that progressive policies, particularly those advocating judicial reform, were "insensate."
He referred to the initiative and referendum as "post-card law making," and said that popular legislation and the direct primaries destroyed the dignity of office, resulting in driving from the field that class of men formerly regarded as the most desirable, those whom the office seeks instead of those seeking the office. He recommended longer terms and larger salaries to attract a higher class of men to the bench.
He also said:

"There has been much said concerning the so-called usurpation of power by the federal judiciary in pronouncing legislative and congressional laws unconstitutional. The very nature of the written constitution implies that the representatives of the people can exercise only such powers as are conferred in the constitution, and the judiciary must adjudge any act as void that is not authorized by the constitution. This does not suppose the superiority of the judiciary to the legislative power. It only supposes that the power of the people is superior to both, and that where the legislature's will stands opposed to the constitutional powers, judges should be governed by the latter. Unless we continue to have judges whose tenure of office does not hang on monetary popularity, and who will not be deterred in giving honest verdicts by any amount of clamor, questions cannot be decided in accordance with the constitution."

EMPRESS DOWAGER MAY BE SUICIDE

Report Unconfirmed — Yuan Shi Kai Urged by Assembly to go to Nanking

PEKIN, Feb. 17.—The city is excited over the report that the Dowager Empress has suicided. There has been no confirmation of the report and it is believed to be unfounded.
The Dowager Empress was known to be broken-hearted over the fall of the Manchu dynasty, but recently has appeared to be reconciled to conditions.

The report of the empress' suicide gained volume throughout the day, especially when neither denial nor confirmation was forthcoming. It is believed that after Yuan Shi Kai's departure, the royal palace was left without a spokesman, and that the Dowager does not care whether the public is informed or not. Up to late tonight there was no reasonable ground to suppose the report of the suicide was true. There is no unusual activity at the palace.

It is believed the report was started by the radical Republicans.

ington."

It is believed that Dr. Sun Yat Sen will be appointed as Foreign Ambasador to England.

Mother Gives Fatal Dose To Girl By Error

PASADENA, Feb. 17.—Agnes Johnson, aged 19, the beautiful daughter of a wealthy contractor, is dead from the effects of strychnine administered by her mother, who believed it to be quinine. The dead girl was a soprano soloist in one of the Baptist churches of this city.
She sang only last night at a Y.M.C.A. entertainment, at the request of her fiancé, Earl Ford, the Y.M.C.A. physical director. She took cold, and her mother gave her the wrong remedy. The mother and Mr. Ford are both prostrated, and it is feared the mother may die.

OFFER TO SELL TWENTY-YEAR FRANCHISE

City Trustees and Pacific Telephone Officials Have Reached an Agreement

PROPOSED FRANCHISE MEANS EXPENDITURE

Buyer Must Spend $50,000 in Improvements—City to Get 2 Per Cent

At a conference between the city trustees and officials of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co. last night the provisions of a franchise ordinance were agreed upon, and at the meeting of the city trustees on Feb.
19 a franchise will be ordered advised for sale. The franchise to be offered for sale will be for twenty years and will contain other provisions that will be of distinct advantage to the city.

Telephone officials who were present at the conference were J. W. Gil-kison, division manager; W. G.
Moore, division superintendent of plants, and Lynch and Morrow.

The Pacific company will undoubtedly be the only bidder for the franchise, and the officials have agreed to bid for and accept the franchise with the provisions set down by the city trustees last night.

The franchise calls for an expenditure of about $50,000 in immediate improvements.

Wires in the section of the city bounded by Third, Birch, Sixth and French streets shall be placed in underground conduits, thus removing Pacific telephone poles from the streets in that section. Wires on East Fourth as far out as Artesia, on East Fourth to a point seven blocks east of Glenn, and on Fruit and Logan streets to Grand avenue and Washington are to be placed in cables, thus doing away with the open wiring on those streets, and providing ample facilities for the entire city and Tustin.

Two per cent of the gross receipts
of the telephone company must be paid to the city annually. The city will receive a sum of money equal to
two per cent of the gross receipts
of the company during the last six years. This latter provision is to compensate the city for the use of the city streets by the telephone company during the period when the question as to whether or not the telephone company should take over a franchise was in doubt.

By the franchise the telephone company is to furnish the city free ten telephones to be installed in city public buildings.

The telephone company asked for a thirty-year franchise, but the city would give nothing beyond twenty years.

The provisions of the proposed franchise have been under consideration for several weeks, and the city trustees feel that the people should be thoroughly satisfied with the provisions agreed upon.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The tentative program of ceremonies which will mark the sinking of the old bat-

remains of the crew recovered from the wreck, was announced at the navy department yesterday. It is expected the date will be about March

lina and scout cruiser Birmingham will act as escort when the wreck is of members of the crew to the American ships.

When the wreck is freed from the caisson, the North Carolina and Birmingham will accompany the tow to deep water, where it will be sunk.
At the signal, officers and crews of both warships will be at quarters, with guard paraded, and a funeral march will be played, followed by three volleys and the sounding of taps.

mains to Washington for interment in Arlington national cemetery.

ter, Orange, tomorrow 12:00 to 1:30.

SUGAR PROBE IN DENUNCIATION OF TRUSTS

Says Trust System Has Resulted in the Increased Cost of Production

HAS RAISED PRICES AND BEEN GROSS TEMPTATION

Recommend Sherman Law
be Supplemented by Some Effective Legislation

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The house committee headed by Congressman Hardwick of Georgia, has reported the findings of the sugar trust probe. The report assailed the trust system but refused to recommend legislation to curb future abuses, declaring that such recommendations are solely within the jurisdiction of the standing committee. It declares competition is the only remedy of the threatening trust evils, and says the Sherman anti-trust law should be supplimented by legislation "making its provisions definite and certain, protecting the consumer and investor from the evils of over capitalization and to guarantee the trusts from exploitation by its trusted officers."

The report says: "The origin of the over-capitalization of great industrial corporations has resulted in the increased cost of production and high prices. Also in the temptation to persons controlling the corporations to earn dividends on watered stock as soon as possible so the stock can be unloaded in the open market; and to exploitation by corporation officers on a consuming and investing public."

In conclusion the report says: "The large trusts if they could produce cheaper, could sell cheaper than small competing concerns, but it is inconceivable that they would unless legally forced. To undertake to force reasonable prices is the only condition upon which their continued existence can be contemplated, yet to fix the price of commodities would clothe the government with a dangerous power and involve the nation in extreme paternalism."

GOMPERS TO FIGHT JUDGE ANDERSON

With Other Laborites He Asserts Judge is Prejudiced in Dynamite Cases

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 17.—The laborites here have received letters from Samuel Gompers stating that he is planning a campaign to secure another judge for the cases of the fifty-four indicted laborites. The opposition to Judge Anderson, now assigned to the case, arose because he freed Detective Burns on a kidnapping charge as the result of the Mc-Namara's deportation to California.

UNIONS DON'T WANT JUDGE ANDERSON TO HEAR CASES

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 17.—A hard fight to prevent the dynamite conspiracy cases going before Judge Albert B. Anderson of Indianapolis has been determined on by union leaders here. His record, these men assert, shows he is unfavorable to unions.

It is understood that the government will rely largely on McMani-gal's testimony to show that he talked to men who wrote the letters and that the "jobs" mentioned in their correspondence were the dynamite jobs which he "pulled off." It is said by District Attorney Miller that his confession is corroborated by the letters embraced in the indictment charging "unconsummated acts of conspiracy."

Intimations were said to have been received by the government yesterday that some of the defendants in the dynamite conspiracy cases were preparing "to tell all they know."

The statements followed the government's charges that 49,000 letters and telegrams, taken from the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers showed that Frank M. Ryan, the president; Herbert S. Hockin, the second vice president, and members of the executive board and business agents conducted the dynamite plots through the mail, and maintained a system of destruction against non-union iron and steel contractors.

and which follows in the wake of the other.

SAINZ GETS NEW TRIAL AND CHANCE FOR LIFE

Instruction to Jury Proves to be Error; Hanging Judgement Set Aside

Man Who Was Sentenced to be Hanged to be Brought Back From San Quentin

Rosario Sainz's neck is safe. At least, it is safe unless another jury decrees that he shall be hanged.
Yesterday the supreme court ordered that Sainz be given a new trial.
The judgment of the superior court of this county that he be hanged for slaying Jose Machado was reversed.
Thus a new jury will be called upon to decide whether Sainz shall be hanged, imprisoned or given his freedom.

Sainz, who has been in San Quentin since last June, will be brought back here.

With the reversal of the judgment, another career is added to the sensational career of a man, half Mexican and half Indian, who has been in the limelight a good deal in this county in the last three years. He was one of a gang of smugglers of Chinese, quarrelsome when drinking and continually in trouble both in this state and in Mexico.

On Sept. 22, 1909, he was shearing sheep in Santos Carriso's camp on the Hellman ranch near Sunset Beach.
On that night while intoxicated he fired three shots from the dark at Carriso's tent, probably intending to kill Carriso, and Jose Machado, an Indian sheep-shearer, against whom Sainz had no grudge, fell dead.

Sainz escaped to Mexico, and returned here twice with bands of contrabando Chinese. He was captured at Encenada and brought back by T.
G. Corvantes. While awaiting trial, on Oct. 8, 1910, Sainz broke jail with Alejo Macias. They locked Theo.
Lacy, then sheriff, in a cell, and in daylight escaped to a walnut orchard on C street, where they hid in the branches until night.

After reaching Mexico, Macias was captured, returned here and sent to prison.

Sainz joined the federal forces in the insurrection, and was credited by Gov. Vega with saving that official's life by killing a negro insurgent who had a bead on Vega. Becoming followish arrogant and troublesome, Sainz made his presence undesirable to Vega, and he was locked up and turned over to Sheriff Ruddock, who brought him here.

Attorneys Weisel and Dutton of Anaheim were appointed to defend Sainz. District Attorney West and Deputy Keopel prosecuted him, and on June 19, 1911, a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree was brought in by the jury that tried. Under that verdict there was nothing left for Judge West to do but to sentence Sainz to be hanged. On June 28, the judge fixed Aug. 31, 1911, as the time that Sainz must pay the penalty by death.

The desperado's attorneys took an appeal and a stay of execution was secured. The contentions on appeal were submitted several weeks ago, and Sainz's fate was in the balance. The supreme court judges were divided with one judge with the deciding vote undecided.

Yesterday afternoon a decision in favor of Sainz, was announced and a new trial was ordered.

The error found by the supreme court is in an instruction given the jury by the judge. The instruction was:

"It is the duty of the jury to decide whether the defendant be guilty or not guilty of the offense charged, considering all the evidence submitted to you in the case. It is not for you to consider the penalty prescribed for the punishment of the offense, at all.
If you are aware of the penalty prescribed by law, it is your duty to disregard that knowledge. In other words, your sole duty is to decide whether the defendant is guilty or not guilty of the offense with which he is charged."

Attorneys Weisel & Dutton contended that this instruction was error in that when a man is tried for murder the penalty must be considered in that the only difference between a verdict of "murder in the first degree" and "murder in the second degree" is the difference in the penalty. The first verdict mentioned means hanging, and the second means life imprisonment. It is the only kind of a criminal case in which the jury can consider the penalty.

Sainz was the second man in this county sentenced to be hanged. The first was Manuel Fellows, sentenced to be hanged for killing Garcia, a saloonkeeper at San Juan Capistrano, in the late nineties. Fellows got a reversal on appeal, and on second trial he was sentenced to life imprisonment.
About five months ago Fellows got out of San Quentin on parole, and is now employed as a vaquero
on the O'Neil ranches near San Juan Capistrano.

PROBE FOR GOV. FREAR

HONOLULU, Feb. 17.—J. Kuhne Kalamale, delegate to congress, said yesterday he had received assurance that the charge of incompetence and favoritism preferred against Governor Walter W. Frear would be investigated fully before any appointment of governorship is made.

ORANGE GROWERS ARE ADVISED NOT TO HURRY

(From the Riverside Press.)

Word has been received from the East that the present situation is not encouraging to orange growers. The haste on the part of some to market
their fruit before it can be determined as to its exact quality, has brought about an increasing mistrust on the part of buyers. It is thought by some eastern buyers that the confident salvation of the orange market must depend on immediate, drastic, uniform action on the part of shippers and growers to absolutely prohibit the shipment of frosted fruit.

Wires from many mid-western and eastern markets state that consumption is gradually being checked by the preponderance of frosted, faulty fruit.

Orange growers by hastily marketing their fruit may be simply donating freight charges to the railroads and reducing consumption and prices on good fruit from 30 to 40 per cent.

CONGRESSMAN STIRS HOUSE

Henry of Texas Declares the Money Trust Uses Black
Hand Methods

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Comparing the money trust to the Black Hand, and protesting against the Aldrich banking system for the concentration of the money power and private issue of legal tender, Congressman Henry of Texas (Democrat) stirred the House today by saying:

"It is high time the House inquired into the Black Hand methods of the financial Mafia. Effective legislation is impossible until Congress understands the methods of the insidious supreme money power. It should know something of the depths of villainy into which the financial Mafia descends before rewriting the currency laws and swallowing the Aldrich plan."

POLITICAL ACTIVITY IN WAR DEPARTMENT TO BE PROBED

SAN DIEGO PLANS A PUBLIC FORUM FOR 'FREE SPEECH'

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 17.—The solution of the free speech problem may be the establishment of a public forum which the city will permit speakers to utilize. Several sites are under consideration. One hundred and fifty alleged violators of the ordinance against street speaking are now jailed here, and the Industrial Workers of the World threaten to send more speakers until the jails are so crowded that release will be necessary.

Will Himself Make Address at Convention—May Talk of Proposed Honor

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—

Gov. Hiram Johnson's announcement that he will not return West for two weeks, is believed here to be an indication that he is destined to loom large in progressive councils.

Johnson is going to Columbus with Col. Roosevelt on next Wednesday, where Col.
Roosevelt is expected to deliver the keynote speech of the progressive campaign. Johnson will also address the Columbus convention, and it is believed he may say something directly regarding his proposed vice-presidential candidacy.

He refused to discuss any matters pertaining to the progressive program, but spent the greater part of the day in conference with progressive leaders.

ENTHUSIASTIC OVER NAMES OF ROOSEVELT AND JOHNSON

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 17.—Enthusiastic endorsements of the Roosevelt-Johnson candidacy for president and vice president are being received believed the ticket will be one that will sweep the state, and claim high favor in the Middle West and East.

McKINLEY DENIES HAVING PAID LA FOLLETTE RENT

Blaine, Senator Robert M. La Fol-lette's campaign manager here, declared today in a formal statement that La Follette's influence in the Chicago national Republican convention would be far-reaching. He says Wisconsin will send a solid La Follette delegation, and that the other progressive states will stand to their guns. He refused to comment on the probable candidacy of Col. Roosevelt.

COAL MINERS ARE BENT ON STRIKE

Million Men Will Quit Work in Great Britain on March 1
—Demand Wage Advance

LONDON, Feb. 17.—Various miners' unions throughout Great Britain have been sending formal notices yesterday to the coal mine owners notifying them that the men will quit work March 1. By night practically all of the 850,000 men and boys employed underground will have notified the employers of their intention to strike.

In addition to the underground employees there are 200,000 surface workers, making a total of more than a million men, who will quit work eleven days hence.

It is now admitted on all sides that little hope remains of averting what promises to be the most serious labor disturbance in British history. The men insist on only one demand and that is that a certain minimum wage be established varying with different localities. The highest amount demanded anywhere is $1.28 daily

Socialist Mayor Seidel Expects Own Re-Election

Believes Milwaukee Favors Municipal Ownership Plank—Claims Party Has Made Saving for City.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Feb. 17.—"The first Socialist administration of Milwaukee has been a decided success, and we base our demand for re-election upon a review of our record and upon our proposition to institute city ownership of all revenue-bearing public utilities."

Mayor Emil Seidel, whose candidacy for re-election has just been announced, in this statement today announced he based his strongest hope upon the municipal ownership plank in his platform.

"We are going to carry on our fight for municipal ownership of public utilities and win it, too," said the former pattern maker, who left his workshop nearly two years ago to take the mayor's chair. "Profits of revenue-bearing utilities which now go to fill the coffers of the privileged wealth, will then be poured into the city treasury, to be used in solving the problems of municipal life."

"It is noticeable," he continued, "that municipal activities which are non-revenue-bearing are left to the average American city to perform. All revenue-bearing service is controlled by the monopolies by means of franchise grants."

Quoting from the party platform, the mayor outlined in brief the achievements of the past administration which he claimed would force the average honest voter to return the Socialists to office.

"In spite of the opposition of old party politicians in the council, in the state legislature and even the courts, the administration has built the first public lavatory in the city; is constructing an electric lighting plant; acquiring a municipal stone quarry; building a municipal hospital; has a consolidated fire and police alarm system; establishing a city telephone service and is steadily demanding the public ownership of all local utilities."

"Early in office the Socialists uncovered and stopped a long standing paying graft. The cost of paving has been reduced from $2.25 to $2.40 per yard by the opening up of specifications and elimination of favoritism in contract awards. This alone saved the voters more than $400,000 in 1911."

"The honesty of this administration, which has been watched by the eyes of the world and maligned by the colored capitalistic press, is unchallenged," continued the little executive. "It has also been distinctly a working man's administration. The wage of the common laborer in city employ has been increased from $1.75 to $2 per eight hours work. The union scale is paid to all skilled workmen and materials purchased by the administration have, wherever possible to obtain, been manufactured by union labor."

"The city has established a system of factory inspection; inaugurated a policy of social activities looking to the elimination of the evils that lurk for the young in the dark shadows of the average American city; commissions have been appointed for the investigation and inauguration of the fight against tuberculosis; furthering child welfare; relieving the unemployed; better harbor; parks; public garden patches; city planning; housing and municipal market places. A bureau of experts on efficiency and economy has been appointed and is now at work studying and solving these many problems."

"Do you think the Socialists have a legitimate claim to be allowed to proceed with this program?" the mayor asked.

"Reports detrimental to the administration have been spread broadcast over the country to discredit us," he charged, "but the people whose votes we will solicit are here where they have been enabled to see for themselves."

"Here's a parting shot for our opponents," Mayor Seidel continued. "The administration found the city government with a $216,000 deficit; it finishes its first term with a surplus. All the dire calamities predicted by its opponents have failed to materialize."

With her sisters, the Misses Blanchard, for the next week or two.

A party of San Bernardino residents motored down Saturday for a week-end stay in the "La Siesta" cottage. In the party were District Attorney R. A. Goodcell and Mrs. Goodcell, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Barrow, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Eddy, Mr. and Mrs. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Allen, Miss Colla Davis, Miss Burdette Malone, Mr. Wm. Nelson, and Mr. G. Wilkins. A dance in the pavilion was one of the pleasures of the party.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cooley, of Sierra Madre, were here one day this week.

MRS. McCLILL BROKE DOWN

Gives the Real Facts in Regard to Her Case and Tells How She Suffered.

Jonesboro, Ark.—"I suffered a complete break down in health, some time ago," writes Mrs. A. McGill, from this place. "I was very weak and could not do any work. I tried different remedies, but they did me no good."

One day, I got a bottle of Cardui. It did me so much good, I was surprised, and took some more.

Before I took Cardui, I had headache and backache, and sometimes I would cry for hours. Now I am over all that, and can do all kinds of housework. I think it is the greatest medicine on earth."

In the past fifty years, thousands of ladies have written, like Mrs. McGill, to tell of the benefit received from Cardui.

Such testimony, from earnest women, surely indicates the great value of this tonic remedy, for diseases peculiar to women. Are you a sufferer? Yes? Cardui is the medicine you need. We urge you to try it.

WHAT WOMEN WILL ASK OF SOLONS OF NEXT LEGISLATURE

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 16.—What California women will ask in the matter of legislation at the next session, is a matter already causing much conjecture.

Yesterday morning the Woman's Progressive League held an executive board meeting, at which plans were discussed for legislation it is deemed will be of benefit to women and children.

Mrs. Oliver P. Clark is chairman of the legislative committee of the league, which has been working in cooperation with Mrs. O. C. Bryant's Civic Betterment committee.

Among the bills which have been considered by various organizations of women, some of which it is said will be endorsed by the Woman's Progressive League, are:

Protecting girls by raising the legal age of consent.

Asking for the appointment of women on all boards of managers or commissions relating to institutions or schools for women and children.

Giving the mother equal guardianship with the father over the children.

Improving the financial security of married women.

Asking for a certificate of health for both parties before the issuance of a marriage license, and also protecting the public health by demanding that physicians report certain diseases which have hitherto not been so controlled.

Contest Department Will Be Open Tonight

This Being the Last Day of the Big TRIPLE VOTE OFFER, Subscriptions Will be Received up Until 8 O'Clock This Evening.

Out of town candidates will be allowed to place subscriptions for TRIPLE VOTES in their respective postoffices any time today. But in order to receive TRIPLE VOTES FOR SUBSCRIPTIONS so placed in the mail, the postoffice mark must bear witness that such mail was placed in the postoffice on or before Saturday, February the 17th.

The last day of the final spurt for TRIPLE VOTES is here, and excitement at the point of fever heat will be in full blast before sundown today.

In order to give the candidates all the time that the contest department can under the rules of the advertised time for closing the TRIPLE VOTE OFFER, the office will remain open until 8 o'clock tonight to receive subscriptions.

The candidates will put everything aside today that is immaterial to the ultimate success of their campaign in the final search for new subscriptions and TRIPLE VOTES. New one, two and five year subscriptions tonight will mean three times as many votes as they would the last day of the great $1800.00 contest.

It is quite natural that the public will have its day of excitement, but its day of excitement will be your day of anxiety. It will be the day—the final day of the contest, Saturday, March the 16th. The judges will be reeling off the ballots for the last count to determine the winners of the seven-weeks hard fought battle.

Get rid of that anxiety in the tumult of the excitement on the last day, by doing now what you will have to do later. Don't wait until the last week of the campaign to realize that you must make up for lost opportunities. There will be no inducement at the end of this contest that will in the least compare with the TRIPLE VOTE OFFER that has been in effect during the past fourteen days. Drill yourself into the feeling today that TODAY is the final day of the contest. To do today while others are putting off, thinking that a few days of active campaigning at the end will win the car for them, AND FOR EVERY DAY OF HUSTLING THAT YOU DO NOW they will have to do three at the last, considering that votes allowed at the last on new one, two and five year subscriptions will depreciate just two-thirds. Every new yearly subscription that you bring in today counts 9000 votes for you; a two year subscription, 24,000 votes, and a five year subscription 75,000 votes. During the last week of this contest you will be given 3000, 8000 and 25,000 for new one, two and five year subscriptions, respectively; and this is FINAL, notwithstanding all rumors to the contrary. The Register guarantees this. Will those who advise you to wait until the last to do your hustling give you a similar guarantee that the contest department is deceiving you and that it will give a better offer later on?

The contest department will be open until 8 o'clock this evening, so bring in all the new one, two and five year subscriptions that you have and get TRIPLE VOTES for them.

The Santa Fe Ry will sell excursion tickets to San Bernardino and return Feb. 18th to 24th inclusive at rate of one and one-third first-class fare for round trip. Going trip date of sale, return limit Feb. 25th, 1912. Account National Orange Show, at San Bernardino. Phone 11. F. T. SMITH, Agent.

ROOSEVELT & JOHNSON

MOST VALIANT LEADERS FOR TWENTIETH CENTURY CRUSADE

By J. P. BAUMGARTNER, Editor Santa Ana Daily Register.

Hurray for Roosevelt and Johnson. There is brains and blood in that ticket, big brains and rich, red blood. It will sweep the country. Democrats and Socialists alike will support it. The Register has been hoping and praying for this good hour and has prepared its readers for its coming, confident that it would come. Roosevelt and Johnson are the most valiant and capable leaders that could have been chosen for the twentieth century crusade.

The foregoing dispatch was sent to the Los Angeles Tribune last night, in response to a request for the editor's opinion of the Roosevelt & Johnson ticket. It was printed in the Tribune this morning, together with the views of other Southern California editors and is here reproduced as indicating the Register's attitude in this matter.

This paper has had no confidence in the La Follette boom and has steadfastly declined to be a party to it. We have always hoped and to some extent believed that Roosevelt would "come back" or be brought back; and only a few days ago we suggested Johnson as the Colonel's runningmate.

We do not believe the people of the country—Republicans, Democrats, Socialists, prohibitionists, what not—who believe in and have faith in government by the people are in any humor for half-way measures. They want for leaders men who are performers as well as reformers; men who are not only progressive but aggressive. Roosevelt and Johnson are that kind of men.

And this is not saying aught against Mr. La Follette or any of the other republican candidates. It is a case of not loving Peter less but Paul more.

The Register does not believe the Republican party can or will nominate any man for the presidency whom this paper cannot heartily support, but it hopes and believes the Grand Old Party will be true to its principles, and truly responsive to the rank and file of its membership, and nominate Roosevelt and Johnson.

LA FOLLETTE'S BREAK-DOWN

"He has burned the candle at both ends. The result is a mental and physical collapse." These words form a part of the explanation that the political friends of Robert M. La Follette have made of his strange actions at the publishers' banquet in Philadelphia recently when he read a portion of his speech four times and delivered a foolish tirade against American newspapers that did not appear in his manuscript.

We read in these days of political strenuousness about "superhuman" energy, of men who can work eighteen hours a day, of wonderful feats of endurance of men in public life. Burning the candle at both ends seems to have become a fad with certain disciples of the perpetual motion idea in politics and statesmanship. Senator La Follette has long been cited as one of these "superhuman energy" prodigies. His sad plight recalls the fact that "we are only poor weak mortals after all." The human candle has its limitations.

Even La Follette's most bitter political enemies take no delight in his present predicament. It is a sad spectacle to see a strong and aggressive man like La Follette performing like a frustrated school boy, before an audience of prominent men. The lesson has a wider significance. It is a warning against a modern custom of overworking mind and body. More consideration for the human candle, even though ambitions are delayed, is to be earnestly invoked.

"POOR OLD MISSOURI!"

Missouri turned out 342 million dollars worth of surplus products in 1909. The amount for 1910 was undoubtedly in excess of those figures. The estimated worth of all her products in the former year is 530 million dollars.

As a poultry state Missouri for four years has led the Union. She stands first also in zinc and lead ore production, in barytes, cobalt, nickel, red gum, cooperage, tripoli and corn-cob pipes. In many other productions she ranks among the best.

Her potato crop increased in the last few years from 4 to 5 million dollars. The wool output has recently doubled. Poultry has increased from 13 million in 1900 to 45 million dollars. In favorable years her fruit crop nets 10 million.

Two-thirds of that part of the state north of the Missouri river is underlaid with rich deposits of soft coal. The mine and quarry returns are more than 31 million dollars annually.

Her corn crop runs well above the 110 million mark, cane, hay and forage are valued at nearly 40 million; wheat brings nearly 30 million; potatoes are worth 3 million. The cotton crop of twelve of her counties is worth more than 3 million dollars.

And yet some people outside of Missouri have the idea that Missouri is not a good place into which to move.

THE GERMAN SOCIALISTS

There are more Socialists in the new German Reichstag than members of any other single political party. That is rather a startling revelation.

But the 110 Social-Democrats in the German Reichstag are not socialists in the American sense of the word. Their chief cry is not communism and complete governmental ownership. They are not a noisy band of revolutionists seeking to put into practice untried economy theories.

The Germans are not at heart revolutionists. Trade unions do not play the important part in their national life, that they do in America. There is no Socialist party in Germany according to our point of view.

Indeed, if Americans were in Germany the majority of them would be Socialists. The German Socialists are fighting for the very ideas of democracy which we take for granted. They are fighting the remnants of feudalism and the grip of oligarchy, things we never had to contend with.

The doctrine of the Socialist-Democratic party in Germany is governmental rather than economic; it is simply a logical step in the progress of democracy.

Brief communications will be published under this head, provided they are signed by the author, or the author's name be sent to the Editor as an evidence of good faith. However, the Editor shall be the sole judge as to the propriety of publishing any communication, and the Register assumes no responsibility for any views that may be expressed in this column.

Editor Register:—I think the public does not take advantage enough of the opportunity to express its views through the public journals. In that way we get the expression of the public on public questions whereas we usually get only the views of a few newspaper men, which are good, and we could not get along without them.

Oh, sugar! sugar! sugar! Yes, sugar that we last year paid eight cents per pound for. And why? Because there was a shortage in the sugar crop? Let's see. After the sugar crop was practically harvested by the sugar trust purchasing or contracting to purchase all of last year's sugar crop in this country, sugar became scarce and went up over $2 per 100 pounds. Did that make any more or less sugar?

When Congress began investigating the sugar situation and the profits, sugar took a tumble and came down in price $2 per 100 pounds, but there had not been a sugar crop in the meantime. Had sugar become more plentiful? Was that the cause of the drop in price?

Again since Congress has practically settled that the tariff shall remain the same, or practically the same, on sugar for the next two years, sugar has taken a decided advance in price with notice to dealers that it is to continue to advance.

In the meantime the grower has signed up his best crop for the coming year and does not get any advantage of the advance in the price of sugar, but will have the privilege of paying for it. Neither would he suffer if the price was reduced.

The independent sugar companies, in order to have money to run for the coming year and in order not to get in the bad graces of the sugar trust, have contracted the sugar output of their plant this year to the trust.

If the tariff was taken entirely off of sugar for the next year, the producer nor the independent factory would suffer one particle as he has his output sold, and the trust is in the position to say to us consumers who want sugar in our gooseberry pies, "You pay my price," and we will have to do it.

Instead of the Chamber of Commerce, Merchants & Manufacturers' Associations, Women's clubs and other august and dignified bodies passing resolutions to Congress to stick on the tariff on sugar, would it not be a better proposition to petition Congress to take the tariff absolutely off sugar for sixty or ninety days if the sugar crop is so short and is going to be so short and give us a chance to lengthen the crop some, and relieve the shortage? It cannot affect the producer a particle, and those fellows who stuck us $2 per hundred extra last fall and winter for our sugar keep their old sugar if the crop is so short and it would give us a chance to get even with them.

When Armour, Partridge and a few others of those leeches in Chicago corner the wheat market and boost flour prices I would like to see wheat admitted free for a few days until the corner was broken so flat and so hard that others would hesitate to attempt to corner the commodities of life.

Think of it! Paying more than six cents per pound for corn meal in this town to make some old corn pone with.

I don't wonder Socialism is growing.

TEN.

Who Pays the Rents? Editor Register:—When I came on to my place, twelve years ago, the lady who then owned it told me the place had not paid her more than fifteen dollars for that summer's rent. A little granddaughter that she had lived with her, I told her the place ought to bring her in $400 or $500 in rent every year. "Well," she says, "if you can make it now that you can have it to work." So I went to work on it and put about five acres of it out to fruit and walnut trees, and watered and cultivated it every year, costing in work and money about $45 to $50 a year, to bring the trees up to a bearing condition. Now, after caring for the trees for eleven years, I rented it to a man for $300 a year. I give him the use of my house and the furniture in the house and he moves in and as the fruits ripen I pick the fruit and sell it and turn half of the proceeds over to my renter, which amounted to $80 for the summer; and in the fall I gather nearly all of the walnuts and get the balance of my $300 from them; and on the wind up of our sales there will be $20 going to the renter for walnut sales, making the place bring in the following revenues:

For delicious fruits sold, $160.
For walnuts sold, $260.
Total, $420.

After I gather and sell all the fruit, turning over half of the proceeds to the renter, I gather the most of the walnuts and sell them and get the rest of my rents from their sales, and turn the rest of their sales over to the renter, making the fruits and nuts sold bring for my rent $300, and for the renter a dividend $100, and ranch expenses $20. Total $420. Besides this dividend to the renter, I give him the use of 4 acres of my land free. I give him the use of my cow and horse and 150 laying hens and 100 small chicks and all the tools on the place for a year for his board.

Now who pays the rents? I claim my putting out the trees and taking care of them for ten to twelve years has paid me my dividends and has also paid the renter a dividend of $100 besides, the use of 4 acres of ground and a house to live in and the use of all my household goods for a year. Therefore I claim I paid the rents, in putting out the trees and caring for them ten to twelve years.

What says the judge in this case?

My head and hard work pays the rents.

I took in a renter to have a man to help me take care of the orchard; he helped me to irrigate and cultivate the orchard four times through the summer, and once in December, taking three to four days of his time each time, making fifteen to twenty days of his time occupied in the year. His other time he put in for the neighbors at $2 per day. If I had paid him $2 per day for taking care of the orchard he would have got $40, while as it is he gets $190, or $60 net profit from the orchard, besides house rent and land rent, etc., to give him a chance to make his living; and I think I have given him a good chance to get a start, but I am not giving this account to find any fault with the renter, only to show that he has not paid a nickel of his own earnings in paying me the $300 rent. I had paid it in work and money on the orchard before he came here. And I have paid back onto the place, from my $300 rent money the following items:

For water for orchard$45.00
For manure for orchard 40.00
Taxes one year 17.00
Sundry farm expenses 25.00

Total$127.00
And I would have had these dividends doubled if I had not been so handicapped for want of water. For the last ten years my wells were failures, but it has been my head and hard labor that has brought this place to producing $420 instead of $15.00 rental, as when I first came on the place. Besides the above I had to pay nearly $100 for funeral expenses for my angel wife that passed over the river last April.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Wong Ping, a wealthy Chinese merchant with stores in New York, San Francisco and Norfolk, Va., and Miss Myrtle Arthur, twenty-one years old, of Norfolk, have been married here after having a license refused them in three Virginia cities—Norfolk, Richmond and Newport News. S. P. REFUSES RATE REDUCTIONS TO SAN PEDRO HARBOR

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 17.—The Southern Pacific Railroad Company has refused to abide by the ruling of the State Railroad Commission, made recently, that freight rates between San Pedro, Los Angeles Harbor and Los Angeles city be reduced from the tariffs in effect. The matter will probably go to the Supreme Court of the United States for final decision.

The railroad commission order became effective some days ago.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 17.—Despite the fact that relatives and friends, assisted by scores of volunteers and paid men, have been searching for N. P. Sessions, sales manager of Smith-Booth-Usher Co., machinery dealers, since his disappearance last Tuesday morning, not the slightest trace of him had been found up to a late hour last night. MONEY PROBE WILL BE FAR REACHING

Every Facility Congress Can Give Will be at the Disposal of House Committee

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Champ Clark, speaker of the House, asserts the money trust will be thoroughly probed. Of the coming investigation he says:

"Monday morning the House committee on banking and currency will open a vigorous and far-reaching investigation of the money power. The committee will have at its command every facility within the gift of Congress. It will be empowered to subpoena and compel the presence of witnesses; it will have the right to punish for contempt all who refuse to answer questions. The people have demanded that an investigation into the money power shall be made. The best possible legal talent will be employed. The first witness to be summoned will be Lawrence Murray, Controller of the Currency."

SENATE MOVE IS ON TO EXPEL SENATOR ISAAC STEPHENSON

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Senator Stephenson will not escape as easily as he had anticipated from the charge of having bought his way into the United States Senate. It was learned yesterday that an effort will be made to expel him despite the whitewash report of the investigating committee. By a vote of 8 to 5 the committee last week exonerated the Wisconsin senator from charges of corruption in connection with his election. Sufficient evidence was not presented, the committee declared, to show actual buying of votes.

The minority members of the committee, however, regard the expenditure of $107,000 for campaign purposes as politically indecent, and this view is shared by a large number of Republican senators. It is proposed to oust Stephenson on the broad principle that the expenditure of such an enormous amount to obtain a seat in the senate is sufficient ground for expulsion.

BANDITS SECURE $10,000 HAUL IN BUSY N. Y. STREET

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—The automobile bandits, who have been operating daringly in New York, jumped from the Wall Street district to the hotel and shopping district of Fifth avenue and Broadway.

Three men in a taxicab trailed George H. North, a diamond dealer, from Broadway and Thirty-fourth street to Fifth avenue, through Fifth avenue to Thirty-fifth street and west on Thirty-fifth street to a point 200 feet from Sixth avenue. There two of them jumped from the cab, stunned the jeweler with blows from a black-jack, ripped a wallet containing $10,000 worth of unset diamonds from his coat pocket and made their escape. The robbery occurred shortly before 7 o'clock last evening when the streets were thronged with pedestrians and vehicles and with a policeman standing only 200 feet away.

LABORITE TRIO HAS BEEN EXCUSED

Men Who Refused to Testify Not to be Quizzed—Mrs. Caplan Has Disappeared

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 17.—The district attorney's office is puzzled by the refusal of O. A. Tveitmo, Anton Johannsen and E. A. Clancy to testify before the grand jury. It was admitted today they would proceed no further until the return of District Attorney Fredericks next Monday. The grand jury will also meet on Monday, but will not touch on the dynamiting matter until Fredericks maps out his plans.

That the district attorney's office has practically abandoned its attempts to elicit information through the grand jury, from Tveitmo, Johannsen and Clancy, was learned when it was admitted that the trio had been excused from further attendance at the grand jury session. It is rumored that other laborites who were subpoenaed will be excused.

Assistant District Attorney Ford asked Johannsen of the whereabouts of Mrs. David Caplan, through whom he was endeavoring to trace the movements of her husband, under indictment for the Los Angeles Times affair. It is believed from this that the woman has avoided the operatives who have been shadowing her.

DOUBLE SURPRISE

Two Newly Married Couples Taken Unawares by Their Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Scott Torrens were pleasantly surprised last evening when the young people of the United Presbyterian church stepped in upon them in a body, taking them by complete surprise. Gathering at Mr. and Mrs. Thompson's on Walnut street, they proceeded to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Torrens on South Sycamore, laden with various sized bundles and good things to eat. The packages proved to be a wonderful assortment in the way of a miscellaneous shower for the surprised couples, the opening of which furnished lots of fun for all present. A merry round of games had been prepared and the evening was one of thorough enjoyment.

On Wednesday night of this week the members of the Sabbath School class of Mrs. Torrens, with a few friends, spent the evening at the Torrens home, where they participated in a jolly valentine party.

McWatters Quartet Coming

The McWatters Quartet, composed of clergymen, graduates of the Boston University, will be here to assist in the evangelistic meetings to begin at the First Methodist church on Thursday, Feb. 22. These men worked together through their four years of theological training as a gospel team, and their success was so great that they became noted.

These young men are now making a tour of the world and will visit the important mission stations of the world. Santa Ana is very fortunate in being able to secure this quartet for special evangelistic work.

Missionary Meeting

The women of the missionary society of the M. E. Church South, held their regular monthly business meeting Thursday afternoon in the church.

Mrs. Harlen led the Bible reading and a short program was rendered including readings by different ones on "Missionary Work in Brazil," that being the topic. The program was very interesting.

We believe there is no profession which makes so great demands upon the general physical energies of its followers as the musical profession. The emotional nature of music accounts largely for this fact. In many respects the music teacher's work is much more taxing than that of the school teacher.

In view of these facts each teacher in the Conservatory has been instructed to so arrange her schedule as to have Thursday entirely free. Therefore the Conservatory will hereafter be closed on Thursdays.

We believe better work will be the result of this extra day's rest and it is better work that we are primarily after.

The whist club to which Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Sanders of 1620 North Main street belong, met at the pleasant home of the Sanders' last evening.

The meeting proved to be of more than usual interest, as the host and hostess made it a gala occasion by celebrating their paper wedding, this being the second anniversary of their marriage.

Appropriate to the nature of the anniversary, paper was used in the pretty decorations of the table at which supper was served after the whist games. Yellow and green were united in the color scheme and prevailed in the crepe paper table cover and napkins as well as in the decorations. The place cards represented a bride and groom.

The evening had passed merrily in the playing of whist and according to the usual custom of the club, prizes were awarded. Mrs. Claude Congdon and C. T. Johnson being the prize winners. Besides the host and hostess, there were present Mr. and Mrs. Claude Congdon, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Majors, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Jolly Leap Year Party

The home of Miss Edith Wells was the scene of a jolly leap year party last evening. Seven girls issued as many invitations to their gentlemen friends and at the appointed time, called at their homes and escorted them to the scene of jollification. The house was prettily decorated in true valentine style, innumerable red hearts of all sizes being in predominance.

Games that were suggestive of leap year and the valentine season were played and a mock wedding was especially interesting. Each boy was given the materials with which to trim a hat, and some wonderful creations were brought to light. The guests were later invited to the dining room where a table was daintily spread, heart-shaped place cards helping each one to find his or her appointed place. Dainty refreshments prepared as neatly as possible in the shape of hearts, were served. After refreshments, the guests departed for their homes wishing that leap year might come oftener and voting the occasion had been a delightful one.

The hostesses were the Misses Wells, Nellie Bacon, Hazel Rowley, Nancy Elder, Carrie Elder, Josephine McCrory and Virgil Potts and their guests were Jack Robinson, R. A. Stevenson, Glen Tidball, Charles Tidball, Arthur Anderson, Lynn Shrewsbury and Stanley White, with Mrs. A. R. Rowley as chaperone.

"Cupid at Vassar"

The 124 class, after numerous requests, will present this play with a cast that would be hard to equal with amateurs.

No one should miss seeing that "Daisy Chain" and hearing all the song-hits that the young actors have worked up.

AMUSEMENTS

One of the greatest treats ever given the lover of the motion picture drama, will be offered Monday and Tuesday evenings at the Grand Opera House, by Messrs. Hawkins & Jacobs, who will present "Jerusalem Delivered," one of the most thrilling religious picture dramas ever taken.

"Jerusalem Delivered" consists of four reels representing the subject which is taken from the celebrated epic poem of Torquato Tasso, whose words and ideas have been closely followed by the film makers. The story is sublime in character and abounds in stirring episodes and remarkable scenes and incidents. The central figure is that of the noble Godfrey of Bouillon, whom the crusading armies choose as their leader.

The crusaders at the time of the opening of Tasso's story have become somewhat dilatory in their movements against the unbelievers, and an angel appears to Godfrey spurring him on to new deeds for the honor of the Christian name. A most bewitching figure now appears, that of Armida, the daughter of an exiled king and a sorceress, as the poet describes her, "fair, false and young, a virgin and a witch." She succeeds, aided by the powers of darkness, in withdrawing one of the noblest and bravest knights, the bold Reynolds from the Christian camp. He follows the seductive Armida and we are taken into the happy island of the sorceress, where amid her blandishments and magnificence of gardens and palaces, Reynolds forgets his knightly duties and falls a victim to luxury and dissipation. The words of Godfrey sent to him by a messenger, rouse him from his ignominious sloth. He repents and returns to the Christian camp. Here great alarm prevails. The Turks, led by the brave Turkish maiden, Clorinda have totally destroyed the war engines of the Christians and when the latter attempt to cut new trees they find the forest has been bewitched by the powers of Satan, and the trees will not yield to the axes of the Christian knights. In a series of wonderful scenes Reynolds, the fearless knight, succeeds in overcoming every danger and breaking the spell. New engines are constructed; on their wonderful besieging towers the Christians once more advance to the attack against the city and after a desperate hand-to-hand struggle on the walls and battlements of the Holy City they conquer their Mohammedan opponents and enter the city in great triumph. Godfrey lifts up the cross before the assembled knights, and when they want him to be king he declines, saying that he cannot consent to wear a crown in a city where his Savior was crowned with thorns. Interwoven with all the moving accidents by field and flood is the charming love story between Clorinda and Clorinda, the baptism of the latter when she is wounded to death being one of the most affecting scenes in the entire play. A special musical program, carefully selected for the needs of the different reels, has been arranged, the service of a competent lecturer have been engaged and everything on the screen will be made perfectly clear and plain to every spectator.

ALIGNMENT HAS MUCH OF INTEREST

Candidates Include a Number of Well Known Residents of Mother Colony

ANAHEIM, Feb. 17.—Interest in the coming primary city election has begun to show itself, and even though there has been no candidates out with nomination petitions, the candidates for the various city offices are practically all known.

The feature of the coming election will be the solid ticket which the Socialist party will put in the field. On the opposite side will be the Citizens party. In only a few instances there are more than one candidate for each office in either party.

The primary election is scheduled for March 12, and the final election comes in April. In this election all of the local officers will go out excepting two members of the board of trustees. The three members who go out are W. A. Gates, Wm. Stark and Godfrey Stock. Of these, only one, Wm. Stark, is a candidate for re-election. Other candidates for the city council are G. W. Hamler, an active member of the Anaheim Board of Trade, and J. C. Cook, rancher. These two are of the Citizens party. On the Socialist party the three candidates for the council are Frank Steadman, Frank Fox and Carl Pressell.

The present incumbent of the city clerk's office, E. B. Merritt, will also run for that office. As his opponent, he will have Mr. Frank Nemetz on the Socialist party.

For the office of treasurer there is at present one candidate in the Socialist party. He is Pete Wiesser. On the Citizen's party there are two candidates, Charles Boge and John Hartung.

As the marshal in cities of this class is appointed, there are no candidates for this office, and the same condition with the city engineer.

SERMON SERIES ON GREAT SUNDAYS

FULLERTON, Feb. 17.—Rev. Bruce Brown of the Christian church will open up a series of eleven special services tomorrow, which are to be known as the "Eleven Great Sundays." The special services are to be held in the evening and the subject of tomorrow evening's sermon is "Religion as Exemplified by Rockefeller and Morgan." This is the old type of religion.

Feb. 25, "Religion as Exemplified by Roosevelt and Bryan" (the new type).

March 3, "The Standpatter in Religion."

March 10, "The Insurgent in Religion."

March 17, "The Knight of Modern Chivalry."

March 24, "What Is Christianity, Anyway?"

March 31, "Scarecrows."

Twin Gods of War and Melody.

How do statesmen get themselves into the frame of mind to declare war? According to a popular German story the method in Bismarck's case in 1866 was one that would hardly be suspected, his subordinate, Kendall, was an expert pianist, and, as Sir Mount Stuart Grant Duff put it, "used, it is said, to fulfill toward him the function which David fulfilled toward Saul." On one evening Bismarck was unusually moody and Kendall surprised himself at the piano. "Thank you, my dear Kendall," said Bismarck finally, "you have soothed me and done me so much good; my mind is made up; we shall declare war against Austria."

March 3, "The Standpatter in Religion."

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

Celery was a feature of the trading on the street. Fancy stock advanced to sales at $5.25 a crate. Bell peppers showed a market advance, the best offerings selling at 40 cents a pound. Asparagus and rhubarb were regular features of the market, the former variety was quoted 10 cents lower per pound, the best asparagus moving out at the outside range of 40 cents. Other vegetables, with the exception of lettuce, showed firmness. Lettuce receipts were of poor quality generally, and dragged throughout the day. The deciduous fruit market was dull, with trading restricted to the filling of limited orders for apples, strawberries and winter pears. Prices for apples were without variance, and presented a steady tone. Bellefleurs were best in call up to $1.40 for the best four-tier size. Strawberries were in fair demand, the fancy boxes sold to 17 cents.

The egg market showed another decline of 2 cents on all grades. Canned selects sold at 25 cents, case counts at 21 cents, and pullets went to 18 cents per dozen. According to handlers of this staple prices have about reached rock bottom, and the market will hang around present quotations for some time, due to heavy receipts locally. The trading was brisk on change. Receipts were 573 cases.

The butter market showed no change. The market ruled firm on the best creamery stock. Inferior grades were inclined to drag, but they were quotably unchanged. Receipts were 20,856 pounds.

Cheese was firmer, but unchanged. Receipts of northern fresh and long-horns were liberal, but the market on these varieties kept well cleaned up at quoted figures. Receipts were 1579 pounds.

Potatoes were inclined toward easiness, the lower grades found no sales outside of shipping channels. The best highlands were in good demand at the outside figure of $2.05 per hundredweight. Longhorns and Salinas were in good demand from the hotel trade. Receipts were 2814 sacks.

Moderate receipts of onions acted as a stimulus to the market, and only the best yellow stock brought quoted prices. Arrivals were 695 sacks.

No beans or sweet potatoes were reported in. Both markets were firm at prevailing prices.

Los Angeles Woman to Receive Residue of the Krashewski Estate

Out of the estate of $500 left by Miguel Krashewski, the San Juan Capistrano pioneer who died as a charge of the county, there is $86.15 to be distributed to Krashewski's daughter, Mrs. Maria Krashewski de Duarte of Los Angeles, and out of that she probably will have to pay the attorney she employed to fight the payment of a bill of $312 put in against the estate by the county.

The bill of $312 was allowed on the showing that the county took care of Krashewski for a number of years. Today Public Administrator Winbigler filed a decree of distribution, showing that the sole heir would receive $86.15.

DISCUSSION OF EDUCATIONAL AFFAIRS BY SUPERINTENDENT

From the office of the superintendent of public instruction at the state capitol, in Sacramento, the following has been issued:

School People Use Bulletin

Many of the superintendents have taken hold of the first number of this bulletin, which was issued in October, with interest, and have made it serve them as a means of direct and forcible communication with all the school officers of the county at once. They ask to have it repeated about once a quarter. Wherefore, this is Number 2.

Number 1 was quickly exhausted. It was used by the different superintendents in most varied and interesting ways. Some filled the blank pages with mimeographed and hextographed notes to their people. Some gave announcements and programs of coming institutes. Some boomed the idea of a trustee meeting under the new law. Some gave sage counsel to their teachers. Some gave lists of honor pupils and records of attendance. Some gave breezy accounts of visiting schools, which everybody was eager to read. So goes the world along.

In future please do not fail to send me a copy of the bulletin as you send it out to your people. I want them as a most interesting and valuable record of the thought, the originality, and the variety of the school superintendents of California. By the way, a superintendent might add greatly to the local color of the scheme by putting a cover of his own on the bulletin. This would give him four extra pages and it would make the thing chiefly his own production, in appearance and flavor.

Interest in Free Text-Books

The shanahan amendment to the constitution is attracting plenty of attention nowadays. It was passed by the late special session of the legislature and will be voted on by the people at the regular election next November. It provides, in brief, two things: that the state shall furnish text-books free to the pupils of the elementary schools of the state; and that the legislature shall provide for a state board of education by election or by appointment. No details, you observe, as to how either of these things shall be accomplished. The legislature, in case the amendment carries, must pass the necessary enabling acts in 1913, prescribing how and when things shall be done. These would probably become operative July 1, 1913, the earliest date that any actual changes would be felt.

Principle of Act Is Right

For my own part, I shall vote for the amendment and do all I can for it, believing in the principle of free text-books the same as in free lead pencils, free desks, free schoolhouses. It seems absurd to me for a great people to furnish 97 per cent of the educational equipment free to its children and then suddenly halt, snort and pant its feet afraidly at the remaining 3 per cent for text-books.

Even in my own brief life at the capital I have seen not less than six efforts for free text-books crumble up and go down to swift destruction. They hadn't a chance in the world. There are opposing interests that make it well nigh impossible to get such a measure before the people. It has never happened before. A very useful combination of favorable conditions, legislative and administrative, has enabled it this time to come to a vote. I feel like welcoming a rare opportunity to establish the principle of free text-books, without being hypercritical or over nice as to the particular way in which it is presented. Flaws, objections, different opinions are easy to find and would be as thick as blackberries with any plan that could possibly be conceived. But the great thing is to gain recognition for the principle; it can be pruned and shaped when it is alive, but not when it is dead and buried.

State Board Provision

The state board provision scares some people, because it entrusts the formation of the board to the legislature. It will make the board the football of the legislature, they say. Still, it is very generally conceded that the board should be organized on a different basis. If it is changed, somebody has to change it. Who will do it if not the legislature? Who will do it better than the legislature? True, the legislature might make a mess of it. But then again they mightn't. Anyhow, they come straight from the people of the state and they have a better right to make messes and to cure them than anyone else has.

It seems to me that this is not a matter to stand in the way of so great a thing as recognition for the principle of free text-books in California.

Attendance Law Still Worries

The marking of attendance under the new law continues to excite inquiry, objection, and sorrow. Many people would rather go back to the old way of marking pupils present while they are partly absent rather than to count them absent when they are partly present. But the fact remains that the law prescribes the quarter day as the unit of attendance and prescribes that only complete units shall be considered in the apportionment of funds.

Now it is quite right, the while we are complying loyally with the law as it stands, to discuss it, study it, and resolve about it to the greatest possible extent. It is only a year now until the legislature again meets in regular session. If the present law is bad, it can be changed. If it needs adding, that can be made. If it is better to go backward, that also can be done. Anything that can be agreed upon by the school people of the state in this matter can be brought about.

So let us twelve thousand teachers try it out squarely for a year and then lift up our twelve thousand voices and express ourselves plainly.

Long Term Versus Short Term

It is true that under the law a school with a short term draws as much money as with a long one. That is, a school with an average daily attendance of twenty pupils for a six months (minimum) term draws the same money as a school with an average daily attendance of twenty during a ten or a twelve months term. It is also true in the same way that a school with a short day draws as much money as a school with a long day.

The school board in each district has authority to fix the hours of its own school day. The approximate one-fourth of the day as so fixed is the quarter-day. Quarter-days impaired by absence or tardiness are not to be counted in computing apportionment. It seems theoretically unfair, untrue, unjust, to count a pupil as absent for a whole quarter when he was only tardy a minute. This all disappears in practice, however, for the pupil can easily complete his quarter-day by doing a minute's extra work at the close under the teacher's direction. The hobgoblins mostly disappear when we get close to them. The thing was intended to be a powerful stimulus to regular attendance. Each teacher in the state will find it necessary at the end of the term to make sworn statement of the number of completed quarter-days' attendance that have been recorded for the pupils of the school. Try it a year and see how it works.

Work, Not Time, Made the Basis

The high school principals, under the leadership of Mr. Avery of San Jose, made a strong appeal to the state board to base the high school day upon actual work done rather than upon the number of hours put in by the pupils. This was granted by fixing four regular recitation periods as the minimum day for the high schools of the state. That is, the pupil who engages in one recitation or laboratory period is present a quarter of a day; two, a half-day, and so on.

Of course, if the day be based upon the actual work done it would not be possible to mark part-work pupils as present all day, no matter how long they remained in the school house. The question is "What part of the regular course did the pupil do today?"

Each high school board has authority to fix the number of periods constituting the day for its own school, with a minimum of four.

Anti-Frat Statute Is Reaffirmed

The law against high school fraternities enacted in 1909 has just been reaffirmed by the Appellate court at San Francisco. The decision of the judges was unanimous to the effect that the law is entirely constitutional and proper in every way and that it should be enforced by every school board in the state. This precedent will probably settle the thing with further question, although the lawyer in the case stoutly swears he will carry it to the Supreme court of the United States. The matter came up by a law suit in the superior court by the friends of Doris Bradford, a San Francisco school girl who was expelled from school for insisting upon her right to disregard the law by violent activity in the Gumma Chu Sorority—or was it the Eta Beta Psi?

Of course all this seems like taking candy from a baby; but it should be remembered that sometimes it is necessary to take candy away from some kids for the sake of their future stomachs. The fact is that a large number of the children in the public schools are being brought up in the public schools to ape their fashionable elders by dividing up into cliques and castes based upon money or social standing or fine clothes. But that is exactly what the sororities and fraternities do. Further than that, they impair the discipline of the school and they abuse the feelings, the self-respect, of the pupils who can not keep up with the pace. So far as possible our public schools should be simple and democratic, where one has the same chance as another, where the future people of the nation learn to live together and understand each other. This is a patriotic thing to bring about; and lawyers, parents and friends are doing an ill deed for their country when they aid, abet and encourage callow youngsters in precocious frolics.

Buying School Supplies

Superintendent Wm. Hanlon of Contra Costa county is trying a novel experiment in securing better prices for the supplies furnished to his rural schools. At the Trustees' Institute about two thirds of his trustees instructed him to make the best contract possible, and pledged themselves to buy their supplies for the year from the supply house to which the contract was awarded. A contract with samples submitted was made with a San Francisco firm for all the standard articles used in schools. Here follow some of the prices:

12-pound foolscap paper, Sunset, 96c per ream.
12-pound foolscap paper, Carrollton, $1.48 per ream.
Newsprint, 6x9, 4c per pound.
Manilla paper, 9x10, 5 1/2c per pound.
Chalk crayons, Waltham, 14c per gross.
Lead Pencils, without erasers, $1.10 per gross.
Lead pencils, with erasers, $1.50 per gross.
Pencilholders, No. 600, $1.60 per gross.
School ink, 5 gal. 35c per gal.
Dann's noiseless erasers, 96c per doz.
12-inch rulers, No. 616, 30c per doz.
Noyes dictionary holders, $2.20 each.

Mr. Hanlon states that in the past bills have been paid for these same supplies two or three times these prices in some cases. He thinks the county can do even better another year, and save a large amount of money to be used for other purposes.

ped cut to the county superintendent. Many who read this have been annoyed and exasperated to the breaking point because the documents didn't come sooner. If such persons will kindly multiply their own exasperation by thirty thousand they will have an approximate idea of what our own exasperation has been here—for we have been waiting for thirty thousand copies in stead of one. The circumstances were such that it couldn't be helped. Please remember that requests for either of these publications should go to the nearest county superintendent not to Sacramento, for we have sent out all but a few for emergencies.

Physiology Ready for Teachers

Teachers and superintendents are reminded that the new text-book in physiology is now on sale and that each teacher is entitled to a desk copy at public expense. The county superintendent can order the supply for his county by a requisition on the unapportioned county fund. He cannot order them to be sent out separately to each teacher, however, unless it be through his local dealer. The little book is most simple and interesting, and can be used in any grade from the third to the eighth. The parents will probably enjoy reading it, too, and it will do them good. Possibly another primer on the subject later, if needed.

Alter Time Apportioning Funds

Has everyone observed the fact that a marked change has taken place in the time of the apportionment of state school funds? Formerly it came in January and July Now, under the operation of Tax Amendment No. 1, the money will come much earlier, probably in September and February as a regular thing in future. This year the first apportionment was made in October, and we expect to make the next one about March 1.

The result of the new scheme seems likely to be about this; more money will be to the counties upon the teacher basis, and less upon the basis of average daily attendance. How much more and how much less cannot be exactly told until it happens.

Poll Tax Issue Has Two Sides

J. D. Sweeney of Red Bluff, a veteran school man of Northern California, is calling attention to the fact that there are two sides to the matter of abolishing the poll tax. The assessors are always opposed to the poll tax because it is difficult to collect and makes them unpopular with the tax dodgers. Yet, it must be remembered that this amounts to three quarters of a million dollars per year, and that it all goes to the support of the schools. Wipe this out without making provision for other money to take its place, and the loss to the schools will be embarrassing in the extreme. It will have to be met by raising the taxes on property. It is a popular thing, to abolish the poll tax, but it is well to look before the leap; well to consider carefully what use is made of the money and what will supply its lack; well to find out whether it is really a reform backward or forward.

Order Bulletins Early

These bulletins will be ready to send out when you get the sample copy. We are printing all we can afford, but there may not be enough to go around. It will have to be first come first served in that event. I do hope no superintendent gets the notion that we are trying to force this on him in any way. Everyone is free as air to use it or not, as best suits his own idea or his own circumstances. We have nothing else at present in the way of regular official communication and nothing else in that line seems visible in the near future. This plan has some good points—elasticity, for instance, and opportunity for individual superintendents to express their personality and originality. Possibly it may in time develop into something greater, something entirely worthy of the state.

Oils for the Household

You can save money on oil for the home if you know how to buy. In the first place don't pay from 10 cents to 25 cents for a few spoonfuls of oil to use on the lawnmower or bicycle, but hunt up a full pint empty bottle and bring it to us. We will fill it for 15c, giving you just eight times as much as you buy in a 10c bottle. For the sewing machine, typewriter, phonograph, clock or gun try our 15 cent bottles of Boye Oil, containing three times as much as the regular 10 cent bottles. We also carry Three in One in bottles and Household oils in cans. See us also for Liquid Veneer Metal Polish.
